ACCEPT OUR THANKS.

For the very pleasant words spoken of The Sun by Dr. Clarence B. Strouse at the last meeting of the Chantauqua, Thursday night, that gentleman has our thanks. We have always aimed to stand up for Gainesville in any and every enterprise that has been for the best interests of the city and county. and hope to be always doing our best in this line, and it is quite a pleasure to know our efforts are appreciated by a man who realizes what publicity means The Son has always stood ready to publish everything that is news free of charge, and in many instances where private parties alone have received countary benefit we have been free to give our space. The Chantaugus and Bible Conference we regard as a public affair, and through these two the city of Gainesville has become known all over this land. We have as fine a city see. so any in the State, and with such men so Dre. Strouse and Davidson to adverties it throughout the land, we need have no fear that the people will get a wrong impression of its character.

In regard to beautiful farm lands and pleasant country homes, we are not afraid to compare Alachus county with the best of them in the old settled sections of the North. People who are here to spend the winter can verify this statement, and as to the products of the soil the figures will show which is the best.

In many localities the use of commercial fertilizer causes much comment from Northern farmers who use barn-yard and other fertilizers. But if by using $6 worth of fertilizer on one acre of land you can make it produce $250, is it not better to produce is than to projuce half that sum without its use?
